TRACFONE WIRELESS, INC.'S SECOND SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLIANCE FILING

TracFone Wireless, Inc. ("TracFone"), by its undersigned counsel, submits this Second Supplemental Compliance Filing in accordance with the March 1, 2011 Order in this matter.

The March 1, 2011 Order states that TracFone shall file an affidavit stating that it has submitted letters (as well as attach to its filing such letters) to the Arizona Department of Administration; the Arizona Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (Telecommunications Relay Service); and the Arizona Corporation Commission, seeking a determination as to whether the fees, over which the agencies have jurisdiction, apply to TracFone's services as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier in Arizona. TracFone filed the required affidavit and letters with the Commission on March 31, 2011.

The March 1, 2011 Order further provides that TracFone shall, within 10 days of receipt, file as a compliance item in this docket any response(s) or determinations by the above agencies of the applicable and/or non applicable fees to be paid by TracFone. TracFone received a response from the Arizona Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing on May 9, 2011.¹ By this filing, TracFone provides a copy of the response as Attachment 1.

¹ Although the letter from the Arizona Commission for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing is dated April 29, 2011, the letter was not received by TracFone's counsel until May 9, 2011.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: TracFone Wireless Inc. – Arizona Telecommunications Relay Service Fund

Dear Mr. Brecher,

The Arizona Commission for the Deaf and the Hard of Hearing is funded by the tax; however, we do not collect it. Our agency does not have authority and cannot comment on the applicability of the tax to TracFone. Please contact the Arizona Department of Revenue for further clarification.

Sincerely,
